

EMPLOYEE AND LABOR RELATIONS GROUP
Washington, DC 20260

Mr. J. Joseph Vacca, President
National Association of Letter
Carriers, AFL-CIO
100 Indiana Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20001

Re: Bidding While on Detail to Supervisory Positions
Washington, DC
NC-NAT-8581

Dear Mr. Vacca:

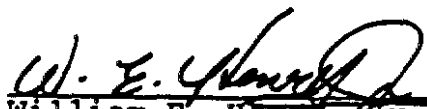

Based on a pre-arbitration discussion of the above-captioned case, the matter is now considered settled as follows:

Letter carriers temporarily detailed to a supervisory position (204b) may not bid on vacant Letter Carrier Craft duty assignments while so detailed. However, nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude such temporarily detailed employee from voluntarily terminating such a detail and returning to his/her craft position. Upon return to the craft position, such employee may exercise his/her right to bid on vacant Letter Carrier Craft duty assignments.

A letter carrier temporarily detailed to a supervisory position will not be returned to the craft solely to circumvent the spirit and intent of this Settlement Agreement.

Please sign the copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of this agreed to settlement.

Sincerely,

William E. Henry, Jr.
Labor Relations Department

J. Joseph Vacca, President
National Association of Letter Carriers, AFL-CIO