Dear Mr. Overby:

On several occasions, the most recent being March 11, 1985, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The question in this grievance is whether the Postal Service is violating the Privacy Act by requiring employees to wear their identification badge with their social security number exposed.

During our discussion, it was mutually agreed that the following would represent a full settlement of this case:

Employees may request new identification badges in accordance with the procedures outlined in Postal Bulletin 21485, dated November 15, 1984.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to settle this case.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Lang
Labor Relations Department
