Re: Class Action

H8N-42-C-32585

Dear Mr. Johnson:

On February 24, 1982, we met with you to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

The issue in this grievance involves the two 10-minute break periods. It was mutually agreed to fully settle this case as follows:

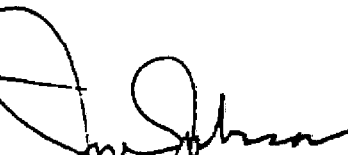

Under the terms of the National Agreement, letter carriers are entitled to two 10-minute break periods. If less than this is incorporated into the routes, appropriate action should be initiated to ascertain that this break time is reflected in the route adjustments. Management does not have the contractual right to deny the utilization of these breaks.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Please sign the attached copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to resolve this case.

Sincerely,

Howard R. Carter
