Dear Mr. Riley:

On November 6, 1978, we met with you to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

Based on the evidence presented in this grievance, we mutually agreed that normally the T-6 will train new employees as provided in the T-6 position description. However, management reserves the right to have anyone conduct such training. Accordingly, we consider the grievance resolved and the case closed.

Sincerely,

Karl A. Wise
Labor Relations Department
