Dear Mr. Overby:

On November 18, 1983, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The question in this grievance is whether management improperly authorized more than one representative to meet with the designated union steward at a Step 2 meeting.

During our discussion, it was mutually agreed that the following would represent a full settlement of this case:

Both the union and the Employer have historically had persons other than the actual designated representatives attend Step 2 meetings as observers. However, such persons shall attend at the mutual consent of the parties designated to discuss the grievance.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to settle this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Leslie Bayliss
Labor Relations Department
