Dear Mr. Hughes:

On January 8, 1980, we met on the above-captioned case at the fourth step of the contractual grievance procedure set forth in the 1978 National Agreement.

During our discussion, we mutually agreed that there is no interpretive dispute between the parties at the National Level as to the meaning and intent of Article VIII and XI concerning the scheduling of the employee in question as there is no contractual obligation to utilize the Overtime Desired List when scheduling for holiday coverage.

Accordingly, as further agreed, this case is hereby remanded to Step 3 for further processing by the parties at that level based upon the fact circumstances involved.

Please sign a copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,

Viki Maddox
Labor Relations Department
