Dear Mr. Overby:

On several occasions, the most recent being July 27, 1982, we met with you to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

The question raised in this grievance addresses the application of Article XVII, Section 6, and Article XXXI, Section 1, of the 1978 National Agreement. As final settlement in all matters relating to this dispute, the parties at the National level agree to the following resolution:

The Union representatives in this installation shall continue to be allowed to distribute union related material to employees during new employee orientation.

Please sign the attached copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to resolve this case.

Sincerely,

Howard R. Carter
Labor Relations Department
