Dear Mr. Overby:

On May 25, 1984, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

We mutually agreed that the dispute in this grievance may be resolved in full in a manner similar to that in H1N-2B-C 7422.

If the grievant, a full-time regular, was the designated steward in his station, and he was qualified for an assignment in his station, he should not have been transferred involuntarily to another station or branch. Management may, however, take whatever action as appropriate and necessary, e.g., excessing of the junior full-time carrier, in order to provide the grievant with an assignment at his original station.

Implementation of this agreement is on a prospective basis and only if the union wishes to pursue the remedy requested. Accordingly, the grievance is remanded to Step 3 for further processing as required.

Mr. Halline Overby

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Eugene
