Dear Mr. Johnson:

On June 4, 1985, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The question raised in this grievance is whether management violated Article 8 by scheduling the grievant to work overtime.

After reviewing this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in this case. Whether or not the grievant was improperly required to work overtime can be determined by applying Article 8, Sections 5.C.2.a. and 5.D., to the facts involved in this case. The parties at this level agree, however, that management is not required to solicit volunteers before assigning overtime to employees under Article 3, Section 5.D.

Accordingly, we agreed to remand this case to the parties at Step 3 for further processing.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Leslie Bayliss
