Dear Mr. Riley:

On July 14, 1977, we met with you to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

Based on the facts presented in this case, it is our position that the grievant is not entitled to compensation for appearing in court on his nonscheduled day.

Under the circumstances, we find no violation of the National Agreement and the grievance is denied.

Sincerely,

James J. Facciola
Labor Relations Department

There are no provisions for payment of court leave on a carrier's non-scheduled day.
