Dear Mr. Riley:

On October 30, 1978, we met with you to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

There is no provision for allowing a time credit for reversing a letter to remind the carrier that there is also a parcel for delivery. Under the circumstances, we find no violation of the National Agreement and the grievance is denied.

Sincerely,

James J. Facciola
Labor Relations Department
