Re: H4N-4J-C 32882

Dear Mr. Hutchins:

On April 18, 1990, during the National Arbitration hearing on the above-captioned case, the parties agreed to remand that case plus additional cases on the same issue to Step 3 of the grievance arbitration procedure under the precise language reflected in the July 11, 1988, document which was marked as Joint Exhibit #1 (Attachment A).

The parties have identified the list of cases which are to be remanded to Step 3 from the National Arbitration list or from the pending Step 4 list (Attachment B). The parties agree that these cases shall be removed from the above-referenced pending National lists.

Sincerely,

Stephen W. Furgeson

Dear Mr. Hutchins:

On July 6, 1988, we held prearbitration discussions of the above-referenced grievances.

During our discussion, we mutually agreed to the continued application of the principles contained in the June 22, 1976, Memorandum to the Regional Postmasters General on the subject of "Utilization of Casual Employees" by James V.P. Conway, the then Senior Assistant Postmaster General, with the understanding that the crossing of craft lines by part-time flexibles or full-time employees must meet the qualifying conditions outlined in Article 7.2 of the National Agreement.

We further agreed to remand the above-captioned cases to step 3 (regional level) for a facts application of the above cited understanding of the parties and consistent with the applicable national level arbitration decisions.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter acknowledging your agreement to remand these cases, withdrawing these cases from the national arbitration listings.

Sincerely,

Stephen W. Furgeson
