Dear Mr. Wilson:

On January 24, 1983, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure. The grievance had been discussed previously.

The question raised in this grievance is whether or not the grievant is entitled to Sunday premium payment for hours worked on the date with which this case is concerned.

In the instant case, the grievant worked a portion of his scheduled tour, which called for him to work into Sunday, and took annual leave for the remainder of the scheduled tour. The portion of the tour for which the grievant received annual leave was that part which actually fell on Sunday.

The parties agree that under the definition of Sunday premium, an employee who has a scheduled tour, any part of which includes Sunday, is entitled to "Sunday premium" for the hours actually worked in that schedule. This is true even though an employee may not work that portion of the tour which falls on the calendar day of Sunday, as was the case in this instance.

We further agreed to remand this grievance to Step 3 for further processing in accordance with the foregoing interpretation.

Mr. Kenneth D. Wilson
