Re: E90N-1E-C 93048688
CLASS ACTION
PORTLAND, OR 97238-9998

Dear Mr. Young:

Recently, Richard Murmer met you in pre-arbitration discussion of the above-captioned grievance.

The issue in this grievance is whether management violated the National Agreement by failing to turn over requested postal inspection service notes and video tapes during the investigation of a grievance.

During our discussion, it was mutually agreed that the following constitutes full and final settlement of this grievance:

The USPS understands its obligation to release properly requested information to the union that is relevant and necessary for collective bargaining and/or contract administration.

In this case, it appears that the notes and tapes relied upon to prepare the investigative memorandum should have been made available to the union.

However, inasmuch as the grievance on the discipline which was imposed has been decided by an arbitrator, the requested information is no longer relevant and need not be provided in this particular case.
